

Nebraska Indian Community College 2013/2014 Verification of Child Support Paid in 2012

Your 2013–2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you and your parents reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information our Financial Aid Specialists will compare your FAFSA with the information on this worksheet and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You and at least one parent (if a dependent student) must complete and sign this worksheet, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the Financial Aid Office. Our Financial Aid office may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact your Student Advisor so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

Child Support Information to be Verified:

Complete this section if someone in the student's household (or student's parent's household for dependent students) paid child support in 2012.

For Independent students:

Either I, or my spouse, paid child support in 2012. I have indicated below the name of the person who paid the child support, the name of the person to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom the child support was paid and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2012 for each child. If asked by NICC, I will provide documentation of the payment of child support. If you need additional space, attach a separate page that includes your name and social security number at the top.

For Dependent students:

One (or both) of the student's parent's paid child support in 2012. The parent has indicated below the name of the person who paid the child support, the name of the person to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom the child support was paid and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2012 for each child. If asked by NICC, I will provide documentation of the payment of child support. If you need additional space, attach a separate page that includes your name and social security number at the top

Don't include support for children listed in your household.
