ABOUT THE COLLEGE: "The Nebraska Indian Community College provides quality higher education and lifelong educational opportunities for Umoꞩhoꞩ (Omaha) Isanti (Santee Dakota) and all learners." Nebraska Indian Community College is envisioned as a comprehensive Tribal College which values service through high quality education. Institutional programs value and cultivate the creative and productive talents of learners, faculty, and staff, and seek ways to contribute to the self-sufficiency of the Nations served, the wellbeing of our communities, and the quality of life and development of its learners, faculty, and service areas.

QUALIFICATIONS: Master's Degree, Doctorate degree preferred with at least 18 graduate credit hours in Native American Studies or related field. Demonstrate knowledge of both the Omaha and Santee Dakota tribal histories, cultures, and customs. Proficient in Microsoft Office applications. Excellent oral and written communication skills. College teaching experience is preferred as well as a familiarity with the use of technology (online learning management systems, etc.). The candidate must be able to show evidence of effective leadership and a background of proven success in working with students, administrators, faculty, and both the Omaha and Santee Tribal communities.

KNOWLEDGE, SKILLS, COMPETENCIES, and ABILITIES:

Preferred candidates will have proven success in the following:

- Master's degree in Native American Studies or related field. Doctorate degree preferred.
- Minimum of two (2) years instructional experience, preferably in a tribal or community college setting
- Experience instructing students from minoritized backgrounds, using technology in the classroom and/or for distance learning, and traditional/nontraditional methods of instruction
- Candidate should have a high degree of self-direction and motivation, strong inter-personal, written, and oral communication skills. Qualified applicants must be able to perform the essential functions of this position with or without reasonable accommodations.

SUMMARY OF DUTIES AND RESPONSIBILITIES: Full-time faculty have a 12-month contract with a minimum of forty hours per week. This includes activities in three general areas: teaching, service, and research. As Division Head, primary responsibilities include: 1) the development and assessment of NAS courses, certificate and degree programs, as well as 2) the supervision of faculty in the Native American Studies Division. The responsibility extends to teaching up to 12-18 credits of Native American Studies courses per semester. Teaching schedule may include assignments on other campuses, day and evening classes and coordinating or teaching immersion courses and programs. Additional responsibilities include the active involvement in the revitalization of our Omaha and Santee Dakota languages, cultures, and histories, as well as active participation in community cultural events.

SPECIAL INSTRUCTIONS TO APPLICANTS: Nebraska Indian Community College gives preference to eligible and qualified applicants in accordance with the Indian preference in employment act and veterans' preference. In the absence of qualified Indian applicants, consideration will be given to applicants without regards to race, religion, sex, national origin, age, sexual orientation, gender, veteran status, the presence of non-related medical condition or handicap, or other legally protected status.
